Trade and Traffic.

The business times of our place are idle in the comparison with other more prosperous times; and begin to show symptoms of disintegration, which characterize all dull times. The late frost has thrown a pallor over the business prospects, and trade seems rambling "between hay and frost," and it is pretty hard telling whether the busy world will keep on, or freeze up!

The farmer and the mechanic, have become suddenly stingy and very cautious in their outlays, for decorating their bodies and adorning their persons; which is sensibly felt by our merchants, who are abundantly supplied for a continuous trade which upon the dawn of the warm season, they were stimulated to "lay in for." Our place is abundantly supplied with the merchandise of all kinds commonly sold in a rich country like our own, but the buyers, for a few days past, have been unusually scarce; and we should judge the receipts for goods sold had fallen off amazingly since the frost.

But all must eat and drink. All must have clothes to wear, and the merchants hope to meet successfully to realize, ere the summer trade shall close, and the fall trade begin. The chances of the place will necessarily be sustained, while the mechanic alone must be the greatest sufferer after all, and his tolls go unwarded, while the merchant and the farmer, can speculate upon his necessities.

But we shall hope for a full and ample provision for all, believing that He, who holds the destiny of the world "will not suffer the righteous to go unrewarded, nor allow of "His seed begging bread."

The Atlas & Argus says that a man named McNitt, who for some months past has taught the public school on Green Island, was arrested in his bed on Saturday morning last, on a warrant held by a U. S. Deputy Marshal, charging him with counterfeiting coin. He was taken to Onondaga County for examination. McNitt declares his innocence, and says his arrest is part of a conspiracy to discharge him. He writes to his family that he will be discharged soon. He has stood fair on the Island, and was a member of the Methodist Church. The school is discontinued for the present. He was arraigned day before yesterday, but the examination was postponed for a day or two, to enable McNitt to attend. He is a man about 35 years of age, and is altogether a good looking and intelligent appearing man. He has a wife and three children.

Sanitary.—When Dan Rice's Circus was in the city last week, at one of the exhibitions, a boy named Gannon was struck on the head with a club by an employee of the Circus, scattered outside the tent to prevent boys from creeping under the canvas. The next day the employee was brought into the Police Court, when the matter was settled by the man paying $5. It was not thought at that time that the injury was fatal, though the wound presented a bad appearance. It was near the temple and much swollen. The boy lay along until yesterday morning when he died.

We heard of his death, and were about to publish the facts of the case, when the Police requested a suspension, fearing that the papers striking the blow would make him worse. The Circus was to exhibit today in Springfield, and the Chief of Police left in the early train with a regulation for the circus of the town. He is probably in custody by this time.

P. B.—A dispatch from Chief Police Johnson received in this city, states that the man was arrested on July 12 M. at Springfield, Mass. His name is Gannon.—Am. Herald.

A negro man named Ned, over 60 years old, the sexton of the Cemetery at Fredrickburg, Va., has been sentenced to be hung there on the 25th of August, for violating the person of a white child aged nine and a colored child aged seven. I will be the first execution that has taken place in Fredrickburg for fifty years.

Washington, June 16.—The Levant, Wyoming and Lancaster, which are to compromise part of the Pacific squadron, will visit Chile in view of our unsettled affairs with that country and the recent outrages on our citizens. It is known that instructions have already been forwarded to our Minister there, to demand reparation for the wrongs committed.

There is probability that the national force in the Mediterranean will be increased.

The Navy Department has received information of the death of Lieut. Dyer, in Florida.

The Navy department is advised that, as no apprehensions were felt at Tampico touching our interest, the Saratoga left there for Vera Cruz on the 1st inst.

The views of the Administration as to the rights of naturalized citizens who may return to Europe, were yesterday promulgated by Gen. Cana in a letter from the State Department. The Secretary states that this government will not interfere in cases where individuals voluntarily return to countries to which they owe military services at the period of their departure for the United States.

The State Department has received advice from our Minister at Chili, giving all the facts relative to the seizure of the schooner Townsend Jones. The Administration has sent instructions to our Minister to demand reparation for the revocation of the exequatur of the American Consul at Valparaiso, and a man-of-war has also been ordered to that port.

New York, June 16.—By the arrival of the ship Parana at this port, we have papers from Buenos Ayres to April 29th. War had not yet been commenced between Uruguay and Buenos Ayres, and the probabilities were that actual hostilities would be postponed for a while. Urquiza's appeals for assistance to Lopez of Paraguay, and Parera of Montevideo had been unsuccessful. The government and people of Buenos Ayres appeared convinced that there would be no actual war for the present.

The season was too far advanced and winter was approaching. The Padres were without grass for horses, and an army could not subsist on supplies from the provinces. The statement of Captain Norgrave, of the Ann Elizabeth, sent last evening, undoubtedly wrong. The firing was probably caused by the military exercises of the National Guards, who, we learn from the Tribune of April 29th, were to have a grand day that time. There were no Paraguayan forces anywhere near Buenos Ayres.

The Board of Education last evening passed by a vote of 25 to 16, the by-law to compel the reading of the Bible in all the public schools of the city.

The jury in the case of Henry Glue, tried as a party to the Elm street murder, rendered last evening a verdict of manslaughter in the 3d degree.

MILLERSVILLE, Ga., June 17.—The Democratic State Convention yesterday re-nominated Gov. Brown, by acclamation. The also adopted resolutions reaffirming the Cincinnati Platform expressing confidence in the ability and patriotism of President Buchanan, and an approval of the principles of his inaugural and annual messages on the subject of Slavery.

St. Catharines, O. W., June 16.—The gates of lock number twenty-five, near Thorold, Welland Canal, were carried away by the oncoming Quebec, this evening. The rush of water caused the embankment to give way and the country around was submerged to the depth of several feet. Great damage was done to the grain fields. The water is now shut off, and the water is gradually subsiding. A large force of men will commence to repair the break as soon as the water subsides sufficiently. It was expected to be repaired within a week.

The Chicago Herald, heretofore one of our reliable, well-informed opponents of genuine Democratic principles, in an article in relation to the next Presidency, says: "We stand pledged to sustain the platform and the nominees of the Charleston Convention even though it adopt the Squatter Sovereignty of Senator Dorrigan, and nominate him for the Presidency. Believing that the assembled representatives of the party, in Convention, will, in their united wisdom, prove superior in judgment to any individual, we are prepared, in advance, to endorse their acts and sentiments, and to support the candidates they shall elect. We go not for the Union, and success to the Democratic Party in 1890, unqualifiedly and by and desire to be revenged upon any man or man."

We stand pledged to support Mr. Dox, in 1890, should he be nominated at Charleston, and we desire to do up with all possible cordiality.

The London Times says, that so far from the present glut of money there, being an indication of confidence, it is the strongest proof that could be afforded to the contrary. The discount houses and Joint Stock Banks are flooded with money simply because the distrust from political possibilities and wish to deposit their resources so as to have them within call.

Fatal Accident.—A Fall from a Window.

Yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock, Mr. David Y. Doane fell from one of the windows of the Athenaeum Library room, Corbuthian Hall building, to the flag stone sidewalk, twelve or fifteen feet beneath. He was immediately taken up and carried into the dining alcove of Mr. Cutts, near by, where Dr. Reid attended him. Shortly afterward a carriage was procured, and he was removed to his residence in Elizabeth street, where he expired at a quarter past seven o'clock. His death was attributed to concussion of the brain. Deceased was about forty-five years, and has been a resident of this city about ten years. He came from Newark, Wayne county, where he was formerly engaged in the mercantile business.—Rock Democrat.

Geo. Watson was killed by the explosion of a soda fountain at Louisville on Saturday last. One end of the fountain, which had been filled, was leaking, and while the unfortunate man was repairing it, the pressure of the gas blew off the top which struck Watson on the chin and neck. He fell backwards, in a moment, dead, and did not breathe perceptibly for some minutes. He then made a few gasps and expired.

The Troy Whig says that Corporal Burton, of that city, was, on Tuesday evening, called to hold an inquest on the body of a boy who came to his death under singular circumstances. He was directed to lead a cow to a certain place; he tied one end of the rope to his body; the cow became frightened and ran; the boy fell and was dragged until his brains were dashed out.

Leave of absence has been granted by the War Department to Col. S. Thayer and Col. P. St. George Cook, of the United States Army. It is the intention of these officers to join a number of their comrades who are about to visit the seat of war in Europe.

The Boston Traveler announces the accession of a man of "world-wide reputation" to its editorial force. The Commercial Bulletin says that the Hon. Caleb Cushing is the man. It is stated that he writes the articles on the war.

The London Times publishes a letter from its New York correspondent, in which the adoption of the Two Years' Amendment by Massachusetts is denominated as "A fearful Political Blunder."

A check has been paid at the Bank of England from which all but the sign of the dollar was caused by a chemical process, and a larger sum substituted for the original amount.

The large foundry and ware houses attached, belonging to E. A. Lester & Co., at Fredonia, were consumed by fire yesterday afternoon. The ware houses were filled with various agricultural implements, all of which were consumed. The loss is estimated at $15,000, $3,250 only of which is covered by insurance in the Atlas Company at Hartford.

O. H. Howell, a young man of New London, Ct., a son of E. J. Hewitt, was taken bleeding violently at the nose, Tuesday night, and all efforts to arrest it proving unavailing, he died, after having lived 16 hours.

The idea that the Emperor Napoleon was his regalia as a Son of Malta, to the air, is a mistake. He left it with the Emperor, in good condition.

There is said to be not less than 10,000 Chinamen now on their passage to California, where their presence will be likely to cause some trouble among the natives.

A man by the name of Taberg, who resided in New Bremen, Laus. Co., was accidentally killed, one day last week, by the falling of a tree upon him while sleeping. He leaves a wife and four children.

A light-colored individual in Washington, on Friday last, secured in extracting a draft for $7,000 from the possession of the President's messenger, as that individual was taking it to the bank for deposit.

General Scott was surrounded at his residence in Twelfth street, on the evening of the anniversary of his birth day, by the American Consul General of Milwaukee, now on a visit to New York.
